

MOKU HAWAI'I TOTAL POPULATION IS:

22,568

 BY ALLOTMENT

KOHALA (1)
4,312 (1.4)

HAMAKUA (1)*
1,040

HILO (3)
8,016 (2.6)

KONA (1)
4,356 (1.4)

PUNA (1)
3,779 (1.3)

KAU (1)*
1,065

HAWAII MOKU DELEGATES:

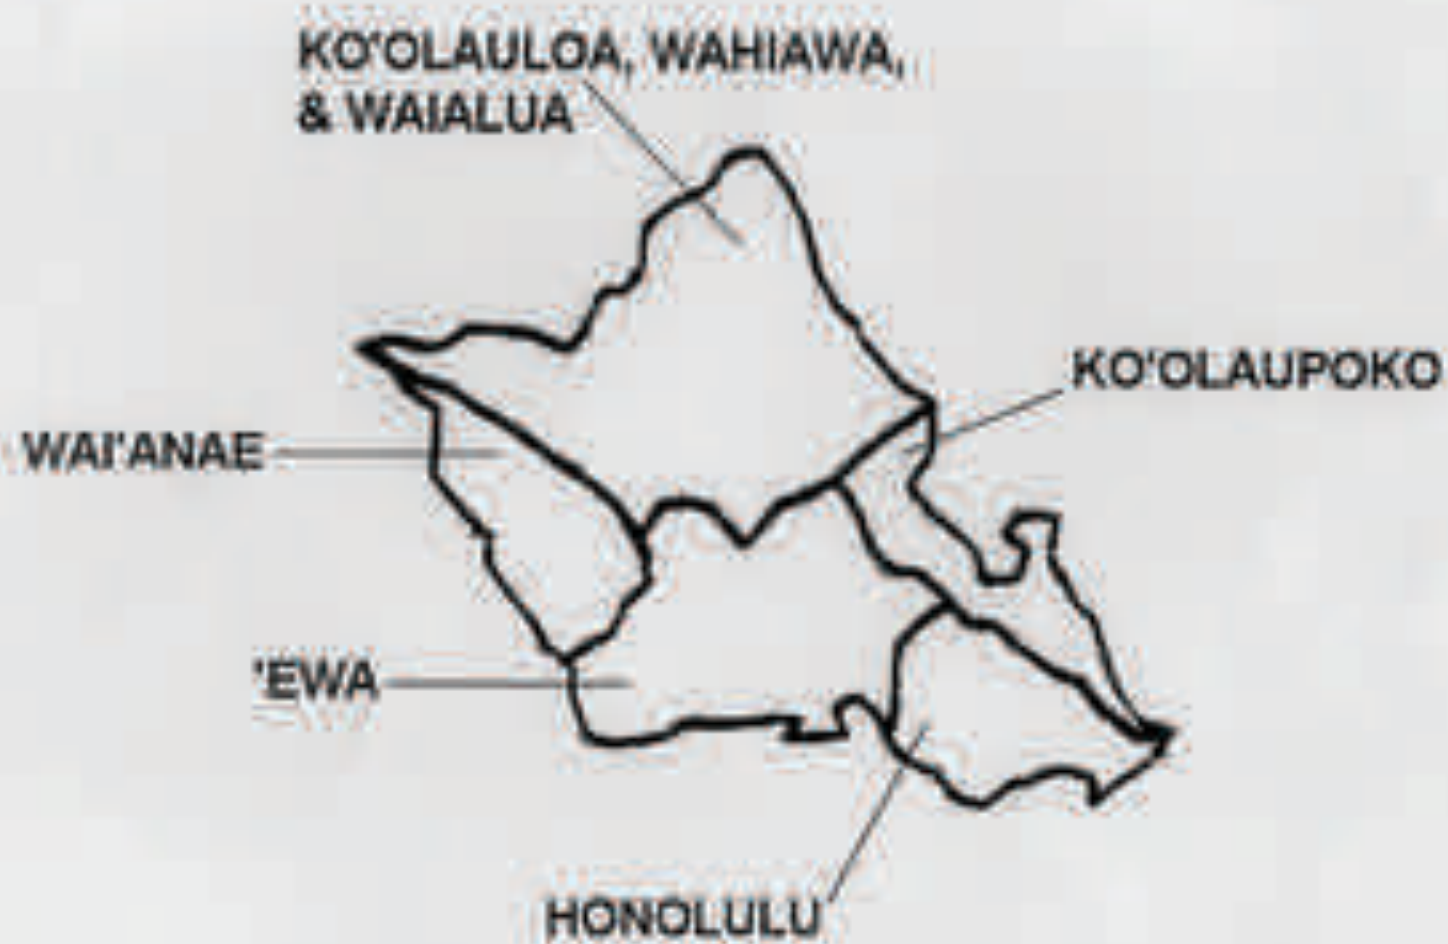

6 BASED ON POPULATION

2 BASED ON ALLOTMENT

4 AT-LARGE

12 TOTAL DELEGATES

KUALOA -
KAHALU'U (1)
2,938 (0.97)

KANE'OHE (2)
6,452 (2.2)

KAILUA (2)
5,134 (1.7)

WAIMANALO (2)
4,970 (1.6)

MOKU KO'OLAUPOKO TOTAL POPULATION IS : 19,674

MOKU KO'OLAUPOKO DELEGATES:

- 6 BASED ON POPULATION
- 1 BASED ON ALLOTMENT
- 4 AT-LARGE

- 11 TOTAL DELEGATES

MOKU KO'OLAULOA, WAHIAWA, &
WAIALUA TOTAL POPULATION IS: 10,904

MOKU KO'OLAULOA, WAHIAWA, &
WAIALUA DELEGATES:

3 BASED ON POPULATION

1 BASED ON ALLOTMENT

4 AT-LARGE

8 TOTAL DELEGATES

MAKAHA - KA'ENA (1)
2,653 (.088)

MA'ILI - WAI'ANAE (2)
6,855 (2.2)

NANAKULI - LAULAULEI (2)
5,699 (1.9)

MOKU WAI'ANAE TOTAL POPULATION IS: 15,609

MOKU WAI'ANAE DELEGATES:

5 BASED ON POPULATION

0 BASED ON ALLOTMENT

4 AT-LARGE

9 TOTAL DELEGATES

WAIPAHA (1)
5,101 (1.7)

PEARL CITY (1)
3,786 (1.2)

'EWA (1)
3,770 (1.2)

ALIAMANU, HALAWA, & 'AIEA (1)
2,952 (0.98)

MOKU 'EWA TOTAL POPULATION IS: 15,609

MOKU 'EWA DELEGATES:
5 BASED ON POPULATION
0 BASED ON ALLOTMENT
4 AT-LARGE

8 TOTAL DELEGATES

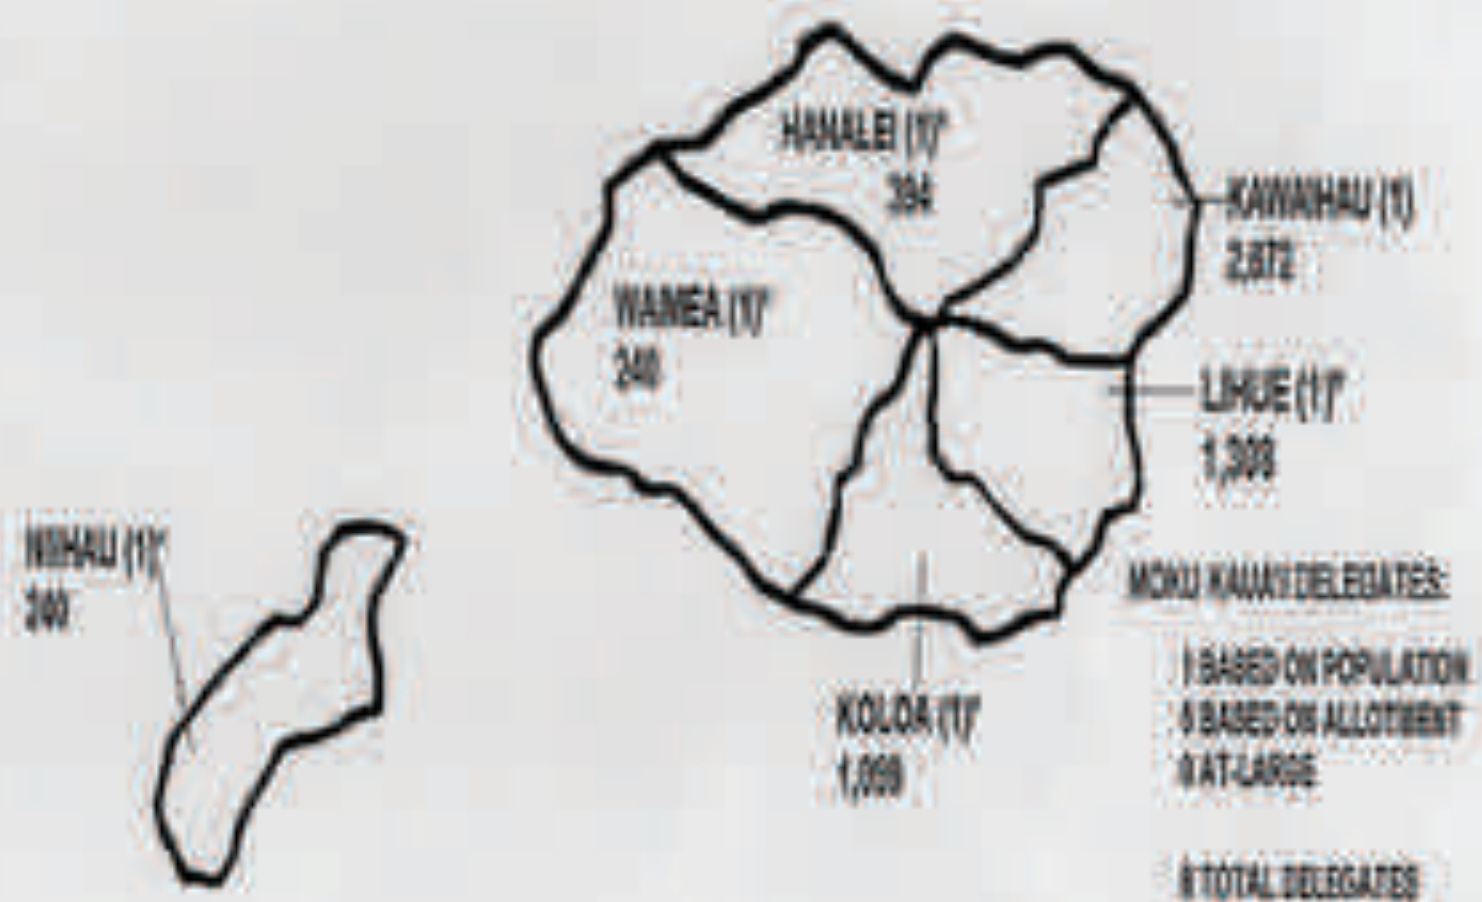

MOKU HONOLULU POPULATION IS: 28,7719

MOKU HONOLULU DELEGATES:

9 BASED ON POPULATION
1 BASED ON ALLOTMENT
4 AT-LARGE

14 TOTAL DELEGATES

MOKUKAUIA TOTAL
POPULATION IS: 7,076

* BY ALLOTMENT

HERE IS AN EXAMPLE OF THE ACT 359 POLITICAL PROCESS THAT TOOK PLACE BETWEEN 1993 & 2001.

Mission is based on the Official Roll Registrants: 125,631 registered verified Native Hawaiian (NH) voters.

Mission Statement is:

- To elect Native Hawaiian (NH) delegates to a Hawaiian National Convention (HNC), in order to discuss, propose, and recommend a Hawaiian government;
- To plan and stage a national convention, and;
- To seek resolution / ratification by the NH voters of the recommendations from the delegate convention.

Objectives:

- Present an apportionment plan that assures all NH are represented at the convention
- Encourage all NH worldwide to participate in these elections;
- Encourage serious candidates to become delegates to the HNC;
- Encourage all Hawaiian “federally recognized tribes” advocates to participate and propose their models government, at the convention.
- Encourage all Hawaiian national advocates to participate & propose their models of government at the convention.

When?

- Delegate registration deadline is: October 17, 1998
- Voter registration deadline is: November 17, 1998
- Voting takes place on: January 17, 1999
- The Hawaiian National Convention will be held no less than 6 weeks after the elections

Who?

- Any person of Hawaiian ancestry who will be 18 by the election date, ~~January 17, 1999~~, can vote
- Any person of Hawaiian ancestry who will be 18 by the election date, ~~January 17, 1999~~, can run for a delegate seat

Where?

- Polling sites will be announced at a later date.
- Convention site will be announced at a later date.

Other...

- All Hawaiian organizations are requested to become registrars and assist polling place operations.
- Contributions are accepted from any source, provided there are no conditions which conflict with the purpose and mission of Hawaiian National Convention.

Our Next Steps Together:

- Register to vote for delegates to the Hawaiian National Convention.
- Register all eligible members of your family;
- Become informed on the issues and different models of government;
- Learn about the candidates view points and information; and Vote!

The Hawaiian Population

- The total Hawaiian population from the 1990 U.S. Census is 138, 742. From this total 3,488 who declared themselves Hawaiian did not identify where they lived. Therefore, a reduced population total of 135,254 was used in the ~~Ha Hawaii~~ apportionment plan.

The Apportionment Plan

- The apportionment plan provides one delegate per 3,000 Hawaiians. The plan also provides 4 extra delegates per moku to allow for population shifts and increases.
- The plan also provides for 9 mokus with a total count of 85.

Districts:

Moku and districts within Moku

- All of the islands are divided into traditional moku influenced by geography and population distribution.
 - There are districts within each moku. Districts ensure there is representation from less populated communities.
 - A moku can take several forms, based on traditional moku, geography and population distribution. They are;
 - Hawaii Moku – one island, 6 districts
 - Maui Moku – four islands, 6 districts
 - Kauai Moku – two islands, 6 districts
 - Oahu Moku – five mokus, 17 districts
1. Honolulu moku – 3 districts
 2. Ewa moku – 4 districts
 3. Waianae moku – 3 districts
 4. Wahiawa, Waialua & Ko’olauloa – 3 districts
 5. Ko’olaupoko moku – 4 districts

Delegate Qualifications:

- All delegates must be:
 - Registered voters on the Roll or otherwise
 - 18 years old
 - 15 signatures of support from registered voters
 - file a $25 delegate fee
- if running for a district delegate seat, you must live in the district

HERE IS AN EXAMPLE OF THE ACT 359 POLITICAL PROCESS THAT TOOK PLACE BETWEEN 1993 & 2001.

MOKU HAWAII

- If you live on the island of Hawaii you will be allowed to vote for all 12 delegates, no matter where you live.
- The vote is a island-wide or district-wide vote. At least 1 of the delegates will directly represent your district, all others will either represent another district or will be representatives at large (4).
- For example if you live in Hilo you will be voting for 3 delegates who live in & represent Hilo.
- You will also be voting for 4 delegates who are running at large and have no resident requirement.

MOKU MAUI

- If you live on the islands of Maui, Lanai, or Moloka'i you will be allowed to vote for all 9 delegates, no matter where you live.
- The vote is a island-wide or district-wide vote. At least 1 of the delegates will directly represent your district, all others will either represent another district or will be representatives at large (2).
- For example if you live on Lana'i you will be voting for 1 delegate who lives on and represents Lana'i.
- You will also be voting for a delegate living in each of the other 3 districts, 2 from Wailuku, and 1 from Moloka'i
- You will also be voting for 2 delegates who are running at large and have no resident requirement.

MOKU OAHU

- The majority of the Hawaiian population reside on O'ahu.
- In order to insure proper representation the island of O'ahu is divided into 5 moku each with its own districts.
- O'ahu has 17 districts
- If you live on O'ahu, you belong to one of the following moku:
 - Moku Honolulu – 3 districts
 - Moku Ewa – 4 districts
 - Moku Waianae – 3 districts
 - Moku Wahiawa, Waialua & Ko'olauloa – 3 districts
 - Moku Ko'olaupoko – 4 districts

Moku Honolulu:

- If you live somewhere between Makapu'u and Aliamanu you will be allowed to vote for all 14 delegates, no matter where you live.
- The vote is a island-wide or district-wide vote. At least 2 to 4 delegates will directly represent your district, all others will either represent another district or will be representatives at large (4)
- For example if you live in Hawaii Kai you will be voting for 2 delegates who live and represents East Honolulu.
- You will also be voting for 3 and 4 delegates for the other two districts.
- You will also be voting for 4 delegates who are running at large and have no resident requirement.

Moku Ewa:

- If you live somewhere between Aliamanu and Ewa you will be allowed to vote for all 9 delegates, no matter where you live.
- The vote is a island-wide or district-wide vote. At least 1 to 2 delegates will directly represent your district, all others will either represent another district or will be representatives at large (4)
- For example if you live in Waipahu you will be voting for 2 delegates who live in and represent your district.
- You will also be voting for 3 delegates, one delegate each for the other three districts.
- You will also be voting for 4 delegates who are running at large and have no resident requirement.

HERE IS AN EXAMPLE OF THE ACT 359 POLITICAL PROCESS THAT TOOK PLACE BETWEEN 1993 & 2001.

Moku Waianae:

- If you live somewhere between Nanakuli and Ka'ena Point you will be allowed to vote for all 9 delegates, no matter where you live.
- The vote is a island-wide or district-wide vote. At least 1 to 2 delegates will directly represent your district, all others will either represent another district or will be representatives at large (4)
- For example if you live in Ma'ili/ Waianae you will be voting for 1 or 2 delegates for the other districts.
- You will also be voting for 1 or 2 delegates, for the other two districts.
- You will also be voting for 4 delegates who are running at large and have no resident requirement.

Moku Wahiawa, Waialua, Ko'olauloa:

- If you live somewhere between Wahiawa and Ka'a'awa you will be allowed to vote for all 8 delegates, no matter where you live.
- The vote is a island-wide or district-wide vote. At least 1 to 2 delegates will directly represent your district, all others will either represent another district or will be representatives at large (4)
- For example if you live in Lai'e you will be voting for 1 delegate who lives and represents the Ko'olauloa district.
- You will also be voting for 1 or 2 delegates, for the other two districts.
- You will also be voting for 4 delegates who are running at large and have no resident requirement.

Moku Ko'olaupoko:

- If you live somewhere between Kualoa and Waimanalo you will be allowed to vote for all 11 delegates, no matter where you live.
- The vote is a island-wide or district-wide vote. At least 1 to 2 delegates will directly represent your district, all others will either represent another district or will be at large (4).
- For example if you live in Waimanalo you will be voting for 2 delegates who live in and represent the Waimanalo district.
- You will also be voting for 1 or 2 delegates, for the other three districts.
- You will also be voting for 4 delegates who are running at large and have no resident requirement.

Moku o Kauai:

- If you live on the island of Kauai and Niihau you will be allowed to vote for all 6 delegates.
- The vote is a island-wide or district-wide vote. At least 1 delegate will directly represent your district, all others will either represent another district.
- There are no representatives at large.
- For example if you live in Waimea you will be voting for 1 delegate who lives in and represent the Waimea district.
- You will also be voting for 1 delegate, who lives in each of the other four districts on Kaua'i & 1 delegate who lives on Ni'ihau.

MOKU KAMA'AINA

- The 1990 census counted 72,272 Hawaiians in the continental U.S. alone did not count Hawaiians who are citizens of other nations, but reaching them all for participation in the election will present a problem.
- As a result we have assigned 3 "district" and 4 "at large" delegates to the Kama'aina moku.
- If you live any place else in the world outside the leeward islands of the Hawaiian archipelago you will be allowed to vote for all 7 delegates, no matter where you live.
- The vote is a island-wide or district-wide vote. At least 4 delegates run at large World wide.
- 3 delegates must be U.S. mainland residents
- For example if you live in Ohio you will be allowed to vote for all 7 delegates. 3 of those delegates live and represent the continental U.S.
- You will also be voting for 4 delegates, who are running at large and have no resident requirement.

In 1996 Hawaiians voted on the question: Shall the Hawaiian people elect delegates to propose a Hawaiian government? The answer was, Yes. Of the 81,507 ballots mailed out, 30,783 ballots were returned • 22,294 Hawaiians (73.28%) voted Yes • 8,129 Hawaiians (26.73%) voted No • The Yes response was nearly 3 to 1